Decision in the Celebrated Parkman, Brooks & Co. Cotton Fraud Case -- Reported "Irregularity" of a Department Clerk.

WASHINGTON, September 30.—In the case of the United States vs. ex-Senator and ex-Assistant Secretary to the Treasury Sawyer, Gen. P. D. Roddy, Haynes, ex Commissioner of Customs, and F. W Brooks, of the late firm of Park-man & Brooks, rendered a verdict of guilty. The part.es, except Roddy, were sent to jail to-day. Roddy is in Europe and not on trial. The defence Europe and not on trial. The defence made many exceptions, which will be heard in the general term, which commences to morrow. The convicts will be retained in jail here until the exceptions are heard and the cases finally to the opinion of district officers, does disposed of. The parties are convicted on the count of conspiracy to pass a transdulent claim on which $57.000 was paid to Roddy. The unfortunate Sawyer, then Secretary, only received $1,000 of the plunder. The penalty is not less than one year imprisonment at hard labor, and a fine not less than $1,000. The jury made an exceptional at hard labor, and a fine not less than $1,000. The jury made an exceptional recommendation for mercy in favor of Sawyer, who, it was not proved, had received any share. This is the famous Parkman, Brooks & Co. cotton claim, of Memphis.

A VIRGINIA RECLUSE.

The Silly Practical Joke that Made Him Eschew Society. Nearly a century ago there lived in he town of Charlottesville a young man who played a prominent part in society circles. He was an accomplished dancer, dressed in fashionable style, and was the central figure at balls and parties. Upon one of these festive occabundle of rays to the coat tail of the youth, and with this absurd appendage to his otherwise faultless apparel he went through the mazes of the dance with the beautiful belies of the day. When he discovered the trick that had when he discovered the trick that had been played upon him the young man was so deeply mortified that he ever afterward eschewed society and lived the life of a hermit. Abandoning the gay world, he betook himself to a small building which stood on the site of the building which stood on the site of the present residence of Mr. James Dolin and commenced the sale of whiske, The door of his den was fastened with log chain, and was never opened wider than was necessary to admit the quart bottle of a thirsty customer. At first he bought the liquor by the jug and retailed it by the pint, but as business grew brisk he purchased a barrel, and finally, when the puice of whiskey got lown to 20 cents per gallon, he was en abled by his rapid accumulations to fill his cellar. He lived thus for many years, never leaving the premises in daylight except at the May term of the County Court, when he would emerge from his den clothed in a drab swallowtailed coat, reaching nearly to the three days past because of not being paid ground, and a pair of leather breeches, walk to the courthouse, procure his license, and return to his hole. After door was forced open, and the solitary occupant was found to be dead. A committee of citizens was appointed to examine the premises. The cellar was amine the premises. The cellar was found well stored with liquor mellowed by age, and beneath the ground, buried in earthen crocks, $6,000 in specie were brought to surface. Probably, with a prophetic vision of broken Charlottes-ville banks, he was a hard money man in the strictest sense of the wo log of wood, upon which the head of the miser rested, and a blanket, covering his stiffened limbs, constituted the fur-niture of the miser's home. His only ledger was a slate, upon which was found a statement of the amount of cash on hand, which tallied with the contents of the earthen jars. The name of this old man was John Yeargen. There are many of our citizens who remember him well, and whose mouths water when they think of the superior liquid refreshments purchased for $1 a gallon through the crack in the minor's door. There were no Moffet.

An army correspondent of the New Yord World sketches General Skobeleff as follows; General Skobeleff came in last night attended by a few Cossacks, having left the main part of his command six or seven miles behind. It was the first time I had met this celebrated man, and vicinity of Lovtcha he had two horses shot under him within the space of twenty minutes. He is, in truth a man sams peur et sams reproche. He is one of the few generals thoroughly loved by the army, whom men will follow whether he leads to victory or to death. In appearance he is very handsome. He has large blue, frank-eyes and a fullish fair beard. He sits his horse magnificently, and is one of the most daring riders of the army. He it was who swam his horse over the Danube when the army crossed over at Simnitza, and during the late defeat of Krudener's army he and his Cossacks, who were on the left wing, even entered the town of Plevna. His last reconnoissance was a marvellously brave affair, and he exposed himself unnecessarily to danger. Nothing can prevent his progress. Returning to Poradin, yesterday, he found a stream which he had forded with artilery two days before swollen to the volume of a mighty stream, seventy yards wide. Though he was compelled to leave his artillery behind, he immediately set an example to his men by taking of his coat, and plunging in the stream, swam with his horse across to the other bank. Strange to say, Skobeleff he is usually styled in order to distinguish him from his father—has not yet been intrusted with an important command. This is due, it is said, in great part to court generals of the same material as Skobeleff would, however, be now of immense service to the Russian army, now standing checked in Bulgaria.

AFRICA. A Letter from Monrovia, the Negro's Paradise, [From the Christian Recorder.] MONROVIA, March, 1877

Wm. Coppinger, Esq.: MY DEAR SIR-I believe I have no let ter from you of a date later than October 28, '76. Soon after its receipt I left Monrovia for a tour to Boporo, and since my return I have been very much engaged.

I set out from Monrovia for Boporo on the 27th of January, having as companions, Rev. Charles A. Pitman, native African pastor of the Methodist Episco-pal Church in Monrovia, Mr. Z. R. Kennedy, a licentiate of the Presbyterian Church, and Mr. David M. Payne, eld-

It is not my purpose now to enter into a detailed description of the country, but I may make the following general

After a journey of about thirty miles in a N. E. direction from Monrovia, the land rises almost abruptly out of the alluvial and swampy regions into an unwest and south.

so clearly the importance of at once or as soon as possible beginning a permanent movement in that direction, that in an informal discussion of the subject while making a tour up the St. Paul's River, learning that it was my intention to go out to Boporo, he commissioned Mr. Pitman, who was in the boat with us, to accompany me and report on the prospects for missionary work in that country. "I hope in four or five years," added the Bishop earnestly, "that we shall be able to couvene the Conference at Boporo." I am pleased to know that by his visit to this country the Bishop has renewed impressions as to the character and capability of the African and of his native home that he could never have acquired from books and newspapers. In a note addressed to me since he left Monrovia, he says "I was delighted and profited by my trip up the river."
On arriving at Boporo, which is about 75 miles from the coast in a straight line, we were most kindly received by the people. We spent about two weeks among them, and they were rich in hospitality. Mutton, beef, fowls, deer, fish, rice, eddoes, potatoes, plantains, bananas abound. For two or three leaves of tobacco a small family could et more than a day's subsistance. The inhabitants, both Pagan and Moammedan, are anxious to have Christian settlers to occupy the beautiful ills and fertile plains in their neighbor-I see by the papers as well as from the reports of the immigrants who come, that the condition of the negroes in the Southern States is far from desirable. A writer in the Christian Recorder for February 8, 1877, says that "a majority of the colored people in South Carolina, Flori-da, Lou siana, Mississippi, and other Southern States have no homes—their little ones are freezing and starving."

I believe that settlements of those very I believe that settlements of those very negroes planted in the Boporo country, would succeed in achieving prosperity for themselves and in promoting the welfare of the natives. Fifty days from the swamps of South Carolina would place them in the heart of a country, where every prospect pleases, where health may be enjoyed and transmitted to their children, and where the slight-est industry would bring comfort, if not wealth. But they must be men whose strong arms are accustomed to wield the axe and the hoe. Here then is a great field of usefulness and happiness open before the children of Africa in Amerbefore the children of Africa in Amerbefore those who are aspiring afand there is no Moses likely to arise to make a way across that deep and the property of the control of the ica. Not for those who are aspiring after political ascendency and rule, whose thirst is for gold and pecuniary aggrandizement, but for those who are longing as exiles to return to the land of their fathers—not for those who feel that in leaving America they are being axpendent. fathers—not for those who feel that in leaving America they are being expariated; but for those who, feeling in their hearts a oneness with the aborigines of Africa, will labor cheerfully when they reach these shores to impart to their native brethren whatever of good they may have acquired in the land of strangers, and be willing to receive in return from the natives such lessons as shall fit them to live and thrive as the shall fit them to live and thrive in this CHARLES country. One colony of such settlers planted at Boporo would do more than scores of missionaries stationed at isola ted points. The christian negro con fronting and working with the Moham medan negro will do more than any oth er human instrumentality in this coun try to supersede the Crescent by the Cross. If Islam is at all inclined to recede and yield, it will be when the ne-gro Moslem recognizing the numerous advantages possessed by his christian advantages possessed by his christian brother shall cheerfully leave the mosque to visit the work shops, the schools and the churches to learn the secret of

of them. When about a mile from Arthington, in a dense forest, we came suddenly upon a cluster of native huts containing only women, the men had gone off to "cut farm." We inquired, "What town is this?" "This be Sol. Hill's half-town" we were told. "How far are we now from Sol. Hill's house?" we eagerly inquired, being very much fatigued and anxious for a place to rest and hear the Liberian news. "About three quarters of mile," we were told. On we went, plunging again into the deep forest. Suddenly there broke upon our vision, unaccustomed to such sights for three weeks, a large two story frame building sur-

Twenty years hence when a good foundation has been laid, and the agricultural strength of the country somewhat developed, then demagogues may find something to do; but not, let me assure them, among such working men as Sol. Hill, who informs me that he has nothing to do with politics, and has not voted for a President since he has been in Liberia. He sticks since he has been in Liberia. He sticks to the soil. tomed to such sights for three weeks, a large two story frame building surrounded by a neat fence, and all around outside the fence as far as we could then see, were coffee trees. The view was delightful—a magnificent coffee orchard in a high state of cultivation, not a blade of grass or slightest appearance of weeds among the trees. The heavy forest through which we had just passed terminates on the brow of a hill, which commands a view of the northern end of Arthington, taking in Sol. Hill's and I. Moore's coffee farms. We stood on this eminence and gazed a few minutes at the charming scene, renfew minutes at the charming scene, rendered more charming from the fact that we had been travelling five days in a dense forest. We then hastened to Mr. Hill's house and were very cordially realluvial and swampy regions into an undulating country, and as you travel east ward you seem to be ascending a flight of steps. Hill after hill, each higher than the last, has to be crossed until you reach Boporo, which must be between 2 and 3,000 feet above the level of the settlements on the St. Paul's River. The whole Boporo region is elevated enough to give that coolness at night and in the morning which in vigorates the native and makes life agreeable and healthful to the foreigner. The view for miles around is picturesque, embracing lofty hills on the east and north, and beautiful plains on the west and south.

dered more charming from the fact that we had been travelling five days in a dense forest. We then hastened to Mr. Hill's house and were very cordially received. He was very anxious to hear of Boporo. We told him all. "We are pushing our settlement out" he said, "that way." Mr. Hill has now 9,500 coffee trees, in a place where, four years ago, stood a dense forest. We then hastened to Mr. Hill's house and were very anxious to hear of Boporo. We told him all. "We are pushing our settlement out" he said, "that way." Mr. Hill has now 9,500 coffee trees, in a place where, four years ago independent living. What Mr. Hill and others have become, who a few years ago were serfs in America. west and south.

The object of my present visit was with reference to missionary operations in that interesting country. Bishop Haven, of the M. E. Church, during his recent visit to Liberia, was so much interested in the interior work, and saw Paul's to Boporo. But no man who is not disposed to work the soil need come to the soil. Send us one thousand or ten thousand such "rubbish" every year, and we will show you in a short time the garden spot of West Africa. Here then is an opportunity for the American Negro to exhibit the courage, the endurance, the perseverance and the industry with which the white man is credited—to do really what the white man cannot do. Wendell Phillips, one him in order to command the respect of the white man, to do what no white man country will no doubt do a great deal of good. He has, I believe, the confidence of the colored people generally in America, and they will likely believe what he says of Africa. He professes to be an Anti-Colonizationist in the technical or party sense, and represents what is known as the ultro anti-slavery sentiment of the United States. But after his experi-United States. But after his experiences here, he expressed the opinion publicly that Africa is to be civilized and Christianized by means of Christian colonies. I do not see why, now that slavery is abolished the anti-slavery sentiment of America should not give its support to the great work of building at the waste places of this land ins support to the great work of building up the waste places of this land through her own children returning from their protracted exile. But it is so difficult for men to conquer habits of mind and action long persisted in, even when convinced of the unwisdom (I use this for want of a better word just now). this for want of a better word just now of adhering to them. I must add. however, the expression of the hope that the Bishop will not so far succeed in interesting the colored people as to stimulate an indiscriminate emigration and there is no Moses likely to arise to make a way across that deep and troubled abyss. Go on with your quiet and gradual work. I notice that Dr. H. M. Turner, the distinguished negro emigrationist, in his letter of May 23, 1876, accepting the honor conferred by the American Colonization Society upon him, expresses the conviction that there "is more occasion for the work of the "is more occasion for the work of the Colonization Society than ever before."

There have been but two fatal cases of yellow fever at quarantine in New Orleans so far this season, and not a case of any kind exists in the city. Senator Spencer complains that Mr.

All along the coast, between New Orleans and Mobile, there has been manifested a most earnest spirit on the in their power to keep the infection from traveling along the coast hither.

A dispatch to the Charleston News and Courier from Columbia, referring to the return of Governor Hampton, says it is understood that President Hayes will certainly visit South Carolina before Christmas, "when it is proposed to teach him the meaning of the word welcome." Governor Hampton is well pleased with the cordial recentions exceeded to him in the Wast ceptions extended to him in the West

One hundred little brown jugs, each about the size of a pint cup, and having a slit in the top to admit money, were distributed to members of a Baltimore Methodist congregation. Money was collected in them, and one evening, after a supper, the jugs were returned rattling with coins. When all was ready the jugs were broken one by one and the contents counted. Prizes of Bibles were awarded to those who had been the nost successful in their collections.

The yellow fever is believed to have spent its strength in Fernandina, Fiorida. It is getting so late in the season that the much-desired frost must appear within a week or two and relieve the town entirely of the disastrous visita-tion. There is no intimation that the fever has spread into the interior of the State. It would be easy to prevent its progress by a rigid quarantine system. At Vera Cruz, Mexico, the fever is rasing violently.

THE SOUTHERN UNDERWRI-TERS' ASSOCIATION.

The search after the mysteriously missing assets of this corporation has attracted wide attention and aroused a deep feeling all over the State. It is regarded in the light of an investigation of public interest affecting the good name of the State abroad rather than as a matter of private litigation. The counsel for the plaintiff have been peculiarly unfortunate in the selection of the President of the company, Mr. Armistead Jones, as their first witness. From his evidence it seems that if there was one man in the State who knew less about the inside workings of the Southern Underwriters' Aspart of the people to prevent the spread of the fever from Florida into New Or-sociation than all others he is the man. leans, and they will use all methods He knows absolutely nothing about it. through Chas. DEAD, DEAD.

It is hard to say which is the deades n North Carolina, Bourbonism or Radcalism. On the platform of Reconcilia tion and Reform we defeated Radicalism the name of the State of Georgia, Cobb at the polls in the last election by 15,000 to 20,000 majority. On the same platform we could defeat the combined forces of Radicalism and Bourbonism 50,000 votes in this State to-day. Gov. Vance's fair and equable treatment of the colored race, since being in office, has shaken the radical hold upon that vote, and the uprising of the people of Kentucky, Tennessee and Georgia, backed by the late utterances of the Louisville Courier-Journal, Wade Hampton, Gov. Colquitt and Senator Gordon, of Georgia, Senator Bayard, Gov. Kemper, Senator Ransom and other Southern leaders, shows conclusively that the South is anti-bourbon, and that a genuine reconciliation will now give room for the growth of that prosperity we so much need.

RAILROADS.

The Roanoke News has opened fight on railroad misdoings in general, and he Wilmington & Weldon Railroad in particular. Our Roanoke neighbor has bold and hearty way of saying things and in the following article from its last ssue, will be found some sayings which will meet with popular approval:

"The great danger now threatening the liberties of the American people, is not a standing army, or the tendency to entralize our government, but it idden under the shadows of railroads and other corporations, which, since the war have grown into such colossal proportion, as to defy the courts, and, with impunity, trample upon every private right of the citizen. From being serright of the citizen. From being servants administering to our comforts and prosperity, they have become our masters, cold-blooded, cruel and rapacious. Legislatures are run in their interests, in nany instances bartering the chartered rights of the people for free passes. And the press, the last and greatest bulwark of human liberty is too frequently si-lenced by the same seductive influences.

MARYLAND DEMOCRACY. Platform Adopted by the Dem ocratic Convention. Thursday. September 27, 1877.

The committee on resolutions The Democratic Conservative party of Maryland, through its delegates in convention assembled, do hereby de-

First. That the platform of principles enunciated by the national Democratic convention at St. Louis in 1876, is here. oy approved and adopted.
Second. That we congratulate the Democrats and Conservatives in the Democrats and Conservatives in the Forty-fourth Congress upon their successful efforts in the reduction of the annual expenditures of the various departments of the government by more than thirty millions of dollars, and we insist upon the most rigid economy in the conduct of all our public affairs. Third. That it is a cause of congratulation to the country at large, and eslation to the country at large, and especially of pride and satisfaction to the Democratic party, that its peaceful policy of home rule and non-intervention in the civil affairs of the States has become cardinal rule of action even in an administration whose title to office is not derived from an election according to constitutional methods, but exists by the adjudication of a tribunal unknown to the con titution, but whose award has been acquiesced in by a peace-loving eople. Fourth. That the withdrawal from the States of Louisiana and South Car-olina of the federal army, which had been a standing menace for years to their citizens, and the recognition of the Democratic Governors of those Com-mouwealths as their lawful executives, nerits our approval and shall receive our support.

Fifth. That justice and sound policy forbid the fostering of one branch of industry to the detriment of others, and we demand a revision of our present tariff laws to the end that no more rev-enue shall be raised than is necessary to defray the expenses of the government, frugally administered, and for the gradual but certain extinction of the oublic debt.

Sixth. That we protest against the Sixth. That we protest against the donations or loans of money, lands or bonds, or the pledge of the public credit by Congress in aid of associations or corporations engaged or professing to engage in public or private enterprises, and we insist that the opposition of the Democratic party to subsidies of all kinds shall be faithfully subsidies of all kinds shall be faithfully carried out by the representatives in Congress whose election is due to the support of that party.

Seventh. That condemning all law-lessness, and supporting the public authorities in the suppression thereof, but acquitting the true workingmen of all complicity therein, and sympathizing with those unemployed or poorly rewarded for labor, we have no new promises to make, but reaffirm the respromises to make, but reaffirm the resolutions adopted by our State convention of 1873, in the following words, "That the wealth of the country is mainly derived from the product of abor, and every just measure to improve the condition and promote the Eighth. That we recommend to the next General Assembly of Maryland proper legislation for colonization in our own State. Thousands of acres are lying waste in our State, and wise measures would not only extend the value of our property, but also give relief to many who intend to exchange the workshop for the field, and to secure to themselves house more in an cordance with the changed condition of things in our country.

DRUGS.

DRTUTTS PILLS Meet the wants of those who need a safe an reliable medicine. The immense demand which has so rapidly followed their introduction is evidence that they do supply this want, and proves them to be over all others, because they possess alterative, tonic, and healing properties contained in no other medicine. Being strongly Anti-Bilious, they expel all humors, correct a vitiated state of the system, and, being purely vegetable, they do not, like other pills, leave the stomach and howels in a worse condition than they found them, but, on the contrary, impart a healthy tone and vigor before unknown. THE HANNAH MORE ACADEMY

AT CARY, NORTH CAROLINA

A few enterprising, energetic men, with some capital to help build up one of the best manufacturing and trading towns in the State. We have two Railroads, making it a competing point for both Northern and Southern shipping, giving a great advantage over other points on the line of either Railroad, Anticipating the growth and business of the place I have made some very handsome improvements which I will sell very cheap, and on long time to enterprising parties. From 6,000 to 10,000 bales of cotton may be handled in trade every year.

No. 1 is a three-story brick building with tin roof, 40x.20 ft; two large store rooms on first story. The two upper floors are well suited for a large Tobacco Factory; situated in 40 leet of the Chatham Depot.

No. 2 is a new three-story brick hotel, mansard roof with 14 rooms. Dlning room 24x30; all elegantly finished. Situated in 200 feet of both railroads. Will rent or sell.

No. 3 is a commodious dwelling with 11 rooms, four of which are 20x20 feet; has a large cellar, a lawn of 1½ acres nicely shaded and set in grass, two large barns, two clover lots, orcharu of nice fruits, vines and strawberries, containing 40 acres under a plank fence, lying on the N. C. R. R., for 1/2 mile, on which land is two elegant building sites.

No. 4 is a plot of 100 acres under a plank fence, lying on the N. C. R. R., for 1/2 mile, on which land is two elegant building sites.

No. 5 and 6 are situated in a beautiful grove of native forest trees, each with 7 rooms, smoxe house, &c., and are very desirable residences; in 150 feet of the Chatham Railroad.

No. 7 is an elegant residence of 9 rooms on

NEWS NOTES.

Mrs. Hayes is the real Democrat of the Presidential party, and the "Hayes policy" may be justly set down to he credit.—Frankfort Yeoman, Dem. The case of Naval Officer Cornell i likely to receive the attention of the Cabinet, even if the President cannot remove him from office, as he deserves The United States in 1875-'76 used all of 1,356,000 bales of cotton, and in the year just closed 1,435,000 bales. This shows considerable activity in spite of he steady complaints of the past twelve

Everybody wants to know when Vice President Wheeler keeps himself while Mr. Hayes and his Cabinet are wheeling round the circle. Can anybody tell what has become of Mr

Neither the New York Republican platform nor the utterances of Conking and Platt will hurt the Democrats in that State. The Rochester gathering was an internecine conflict, with the ullies and blackguards on top.

It is all nonsense to talk, as the De troit Free Press does, about Boston's reating fish to replenish her brains." f course she does nothing of the sort. She is so full of brains already that the eating of a single sardine would cause her to slop over.

The Wisconsin Democrats have made a good ticket. The candidate for Govor, Judge Mallory, is not a politicial and in all respects is the best man the Democrats have had at the head of thei ticket for years. So says the Piniadel

Secretary McCrary has prepared, and will soon present to the President for transmission to Congress in extra ses sion, an important and comprehensiv paper on the condition of the army, and a detailed plan for its increase.

Courier-Journal: We are told now that the New York Republican Con vention did not represent the Republican party at all. It is very evident, however, that it was a very accurate representation of the Republican party of the anti-Hayesian era—and a very nauseating representation it was, too.

In a Kentucky paper we read: "Onehalf of the young men who enter the legal profession in Kentucky do so with a view of engaging in politics. With their moral principles not fully fixed, the Kentucky mode of electioneering is fatal to many of them. The result is they fail in their profession and fail as politicians. The State is covered with the wrecks.'

Gen. Hancock writes to the War Department that affairs in the mining districts of Pennsylvania are gradually assuming a better shape, but that they e not reached that condition of quietude which would justify the concentration of the United States forces at Carlisle barracks and Alleghany arsenal, where it is proposed to establish

Pope Pius IX. always enjoys a little joke. He sees the point as quickly and laughs as merrily as when he was a well-known literary gentleman was present at one of the Pope's receptions. The Holy Father approached him and said, "Are you a Catholic or a Protestant?" "Moley Father" Parker, "and the protestant of the Pope's receptions. tant?" "Holy Father," replied our friend, "I am neither a Catholic nor a Protestant; J am a journalist." His Holiness laughed heartily, and moved

Next week the case of the Louisiana Returning Board comes up in New Or-leans. It is understood that Wells and Anderson will try to have it transferred to the United States Circuit Court, as they believe their chances are better there. The two negro members are allowing Wells and Anderson to run the deliverance machine, and they are said to be quite indifferent about the matter, as they rely upon J. Madison Wells' notorious cunning to get them out of the scrape.

There is a panic among Republican Senators, small at present, but like the circulation of the country newspaper, it is rapidly increasing. Morton is so ill he will hardly be able to be present at the opening of Congress; Patterson's little business in South Carolina may keep him out of his seat, while the remoyal of some of Spencer's triends in Alabama has made that eminent carpetbagger so mad that he threatens to "make it hot for Hayes" by acting with the Democrats. On the whole, there is a very encouraging prospect of a rumpus.

Ubiquity and Prosperity of the Jews.

A London letter says: "The Jews are indeed ubiquitous. They are everywhere. The Russians cannot feed their troops without them. The Turks borrow of them to clothe their armies. Antwerp, as all the world knows, ha just held a splenaid fete in honor of Rubens. The decorations and illumina tions cost $300,000. Most of the money came to London; for the same enter prising Jew who is not above erecting single gas star over the door of a Regen street tradesman, has, by dint of skill and money, constituted himself the decorative artist of all Europe. Defries, who became known to all the munici-palities at the peace rejoicings after the fall of Lucknow, wreathed Antwerp the other day with flags, and at night made it a blaze of lamps, gas-jets, transparen-cies and crystal glories. Three hundred thousand dollars transformed the dull city into fairy land."

A Word in Defence of Women. (Weekly Literary Journal.) Men too often malign women in ascusing them of extravagance in dress.

Generalizing is always dangerous, and particularly so where women are con The masses of women are not spend thrifts; any sane man will admit that a a rule women are not even extravagant.

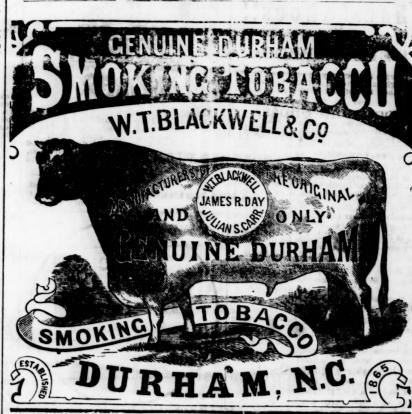

They have certain pet theories regard-ing dress which if not admirable are nevertheless not of sufficient importance to warrant a libel to be written against

The truth is that women are not, no ever have been, as a sex, extravagant on the contrary, they are econ many times to penuriousness. They have no income of their own, and the money given them by their husbands is always for family expenses, and goes to the purchase of wearing apparel and household goods, and the little that is left is often less than many men imagine The trouble is that women buy for show when they do buy, and they do

More of Mr. Beacham's Corn. Mr. T. L. And i must be remembered that the 57 stalks above were not picked but such as the wind blew down indiscriminately over the field. We think under the circumstances, Mr. Beacham is ahead in the Presentation of Plate.

At Edenton street M. E. Sabbath School an incident occurred on Sunday, not embraced in the usual routine of Sabbath School exercises. It was the presentation of a beautiful silver pitcher and goblet to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Young, for so many years laborers in the Sabbath School at that church. We have heard frequently of the recipients of this sort of "marks of appreciation" being taken by surprise and called on "unexpectedly" to return "thanks, and so forth," but there was Lo mistake about the "surprise" in this instance, the donors, (the teachers of the school and a few others) having been successful in keeping their intentions secret up to the moment of putting them in execution.

After the usual opening exercises, the pastor of the church, Rev. Dr. Burkhead, announced that Mr. W. J. Young, so long the Superintendent of the School and a few of the church, Rev. so long the Superintendent of the School vas about to retire from that positio and that the Quarterly Conferen lected Mr. D. W. Bain to that place. He then read the following resolution passed unanimously by the Quarterly onference:

Resolved, "That the thanks of this Quarterly Conference are due and here-by tendered to Brother W. J. Young for he faithful and devoted zeal he has dis played as Superintendent of the Eden ton street Sunday School, and that the Conference assures him of the high regard and affection which its member as well as the members of the Sunday School and congregation, entertain fo him and sister Young, his wife."

Mr. Young made a few remarks to the school strains that sell the school strains that sell the school strains that sell the school strains the school strains that sell the school strains the school strains that sell the school strains the school school strains the school school school strains the school sch of the Cumberland county Agricultural the school, stating that although his official connection with it had ceased he should continue to feel a deep interest in its success, and would at all times co-operate with those in charge in promoting its prosperity and usefulness.

Mr. Bain also addressed the school, stating that he would greatly have pre-ferred to decline the great responsibili-ties imposed on him, but as he had been placed in the position would de-vote his best energies to the discharge of the duties attached to it.

Dr. Burkhead complimented the officers and teachers on the prosperous condition of the school, and urged conoseph G. Brown, Secretary, and Eddie Pescud, Librarian, were unanimously re-elected to their respective positions Then there was a song by the school,

Speak a word for Jesus."

At the conclusion of the song, Mr. Bain brought out from its hiding place somewhere about the altar, a large basket over which was spread a snow, white cloth, and placed it near the altar railing. He then drew from the basket large swinging silver water pitcher and goblet and placed them on the railing in view of the school. This created mething of a sensation, for none but Rev. Mr. Burkhead stepped foward and addressed Mr. and Mrs. Young as fol-

Dear Brother and Sister Young:-You have long and faithfully served the cause of Christ in this church, and more especially in the Sabbath-school depart-ment. You have lead the teachers and children in the study of God's holy word and in the sweet songs of gladness and praise. By your ability, diligence and persevering faithfulness you have won the lasting affection of the children Nat. Cheek, drunk and disorderly on the streets, was retained in custody, and of your co-laborers in the blessed and his case continued. work of teaching the rising neration to love and serve the Lord. In this labor of love God has blessed you and nade you a blessing to others.

We desire now to express to you ou approbation of your worth and to en courage you to press on in the cause of God until Christ shall say, "Come ye blessed of my father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world."

It is my happy privilege on behalf of the Sabbath School to present to you this beautiful pitcher and goblet as a oken of esteem and love. You have shared the work together, together receive this present. Your names have been written on our hearts, and we have had them engraved on this lasting plate. As this pure metal reflects you image as you behold it, so may you re flect the image of Christ on all who be hold your life and conversation. As this pitcher is to contain the pure and sparking beverage which God has pre-pared to nourish his creatures, so may our hearts contain that pure water o life which alone can satisfy the thirsty soul; and as you draw material water from the wells of earth to fill this pitcher in order to quench the thirst of the animal nature, may you also with joy draw the water of eternal life out of the wells of salvation.

Mr. Young, not having had fair play by being allowed time to think up something pretty to say in return, said but little; however, he thanked the do-nors with evident feeling and renewed his assurance of deep interest in the school. As for Mrs. Young, she took out her part in crying.

Rev. A. W. Mangum, who was present, addressed the school, teachers and spectators, in his usual felicitous style. The pitcher has engraved on the base of the pedestal the words, "Presented to Mr. and Mrs. Young by the Sabbath School of Edenton street M. E. Church, South, Raleigh, N. C., as a token of its appreciation of their long and faithful services. September 30th, 1877." The school sung "Resting in Faith," Miss Dixie Gayle at the organ, and the exercises closed with a benediction by Rev. A. W. Mangum.

Our Churches on Sunday.

The fine weather of Sunday permit ted the attendance of good congregations at all the churches. At Christ Church Rev. M. M. Marshall, D. D. delivered a very able discourse on the efficacy of human prayer, and refuted the charges mad Atheists and unbelievers generally, that prayers are not answered in this world, by proof that in innumerable and well uthenticated cases such petitions had been directly answered.

At the Church of the Good Shepherd, Rev. J. C. Huske, of Fayetteville, took

tor his text "The fleshy lusts which war against the soul." He alluded to the irmness necessary to prevent one's self from giving way to intemperance in inything; that these lusts made slaves of men and led them, bound, to certain leath and destruction. The only remedy was the animation by true Clristia principles. In the evening Rev. Mr. Rich occupied the pulpit and discoursed on the Ministry of Angels. Man really ives in two worlds; the material an the spiritual, and were our sight made perfect, we should behold Angelic spirits all around us, ministering with loving hands to all our wants. The scriptures teach of this Ministry of Angels, but people generally either pass the subject without notice, or else disregard it.

At the Swain St. Baptist, the new pastor, Rev. W. R. Gwaltney, delivered able sermons both in the morning and able sermons both in the morning and evening. Taking for his morning's subject the "True growth of Churches," he proved most conclusively that "True growth" did not consist in the rise of Fine Churches, good choirs, nor wealthy members, but that earnest, faithful, and prayerful christians were needed. The sermon was listened to very attentively, and made a deep impression. The congregation have reason to congratulate themselves upon their new pastor. His clear and forcible delivery, happy selections of ideas and expressions entitle him to be called a "good of the M. E. Church, South. He also occupied the pulpit at night. There were large audiences at both services. At the first and second Presbyteria Churches, the pulpits were occupied by the respective pastors, Dr. Vaughu and Rev. J. M. Atkinson. We failed to get a report of the subjects of either dis-

Dedication of Brooklyn M. E. Church.

According to previous notice the new M. E. Church, near Maj. Devereux's, known as "Brooklyn Church," was dedicated to religious uses on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

By the time appointed a large audience, perhaps a thousand or more, had assembled and occupied temporary seats under a brush arbor on the North side of the church. of the church.

The exercises were opened by the singing of an anthem, "How Beautiful are thy Dwellings, O Lord of Hosts," Mrs. Hattie Poe presiding at condition of the school, and urged continuance of zeal and harmony in the future.

The office of Assistant Super ntendent being vacant by the election of Mr. Bain Superintendent, Mr. Samuel C. White was unanimously elected to that position.

Hosts," Mrs. Hattie Poe presiding at the organ, which was placed on a plattorm near the speaker's stand.

Mr. Mangum then arose and gave out the hymn, "Behold thy Temple, God of Grace," which was sung and followed by a prayer by Rev. J. B. Bobbitt.

Then the scripture lessons set apart for much consistent. Then the scripture lessons set apart for such occasions was read—Gen. 18 chap. Mr. Jesse A. Jones having declined a re-election as treasurer, Mr. J. S. Wynne was unanimously elected to the was sung, "Lord of Hosts, to thee we

Mr. Mangum then proceeded to de liver the dedication sermon, taking for his text the 5th verse of the 100th Psalm: "For the Lord is good; His mercy is everlasting, and his truth endureth to all generations."

We did intend to report the leading oints of the discourse, but soon foun hat an attempt to do se would come so far short of conveying a satisfactory idea of its excellence that we gave it up. The general scope was to show the excellency of the doctrines of the Bible, as they affect man's happiness here and hereafter, promulgated from the pulpits of the churches of the land; and hence how much more noble and glorious i the work of building churches than that of any mere worldly enterprises, however commendable and useful such en-terprises may be. He paid a well-de served tribute to those who have so er ergetically labored in organizing a church and building a house for worship in this locality, and also to Maj. Dever eux for his ready liberality in giving the site for the building.

At the conclusion of the discourse a viduals interested in the work, and re sulted in raising about $160. The usual form, according to the usages of the M. E. Church, of presentation and dedication followed, after which the choir sung "Sweet By-and-

By," and the exercises closed with the diction. This "little church on the hill" is a neat and tastily constructed edifice, and handsomely finished off both outside and inside. It has already a flourishing Sabbath School and an earnest though small membership. It is located conve-niently to a considerable section of country and suburbs of the city, the prople of which would find it inconvenient to attend the churches of the city.
We would give the names of the trustees and of others who have interested themselves in the work of organizing this church, but failed to get a list of them for this issue.

What Every Body Says Must be True. The incontrovertible testimony off-red by those who have used 1-r. Pierce's Favorite Prescription induced the doct of to 8 lift under a positive guarantee. May ladies have refrained from using it on account of a general feeling of prejudice against advertised medicines. Let me ask a question. Are you prejudiced against sewing machines because you have seen them advertis d'or can you doubt the skill and ingenuity required in their invention? Again, would you refuse to insure your house because the company advertised that it had paid millions in losses, and yet had a capital of several millions? Do such advertisements shake your confidence, and create prejudices? Then why refuse to credit the test mony of those who have found the Favorite Prescription to be all that is elalmed for it in evercoming those allments peculiar to your sex? Why submit to the use of harsh, and perhaps caustic treatment, thus aggravating your malady, when relief is guaranteed, and a p sitive, perfect, and pemanent cure has been effected in thousands of cases?

WABASH STATION, ILL., OC. 24, 1876.

R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffolo, N. Y.:

Lear Sir—Allow me to extend my most sincere thanks to you for the great benefit my wife has received from the use of your Favorite Prescription. She suffered almost intolerably before using your medicine, and I had tried the skill of several physicians but to no purpose. Finally, I thought I would give the Favorite Prescription a trial, and she is now sound and well.

Very gratefully yours,

D. A. HUNTER.

VEGETINE

system. Its Medicinal Properties Are ALTEKATIVE, TONIC, SOLVENT AND DIURETIC.

Vegetine is made exclusively from the julces of carefully-selected barks, roots and nerbs, and so strongly concentrat d that it wil effectually erad-cate from the system every taint of scrofula, scrofulous humor, tumors, cancer, cancerous humor, erysipelas, salt rheum, syphilicid diserses, canker, faintness at the stomach and all diseases that arise from impure blood. Sciatica, inflammatory and chronic rheumatism, neuralgia, gout and spinal complaints, can only be effectually cured through the blood.

For ulcers and eruptive diseases of the skin, pu-tules, pimples, blotches, boils, tetter, scaldhead and ringworm, Vegetine has never failed to effect a permanent cure.

For pains in the back, kidney complaints, dropsy, female weakness, leuc-ortho, arising from internal ulceration, and uterine diseases and general debility. Vegetine acts directly upon the causes of these complaints. It invigorates and strengthens the whole system, acts upon the secretive organs, alays inflammation, cures ulceration and regulates the bowels.

For estarrh, dysiepsia, habitual costive-flammation, cures ulceration and regulates the bowels.

For catarrh, dys; epsia, habitual costiveness, pa pitation of the heart, headache, piles, nervousness, and general prostration of the nervous system, no medicine has ever given uch perfect satisfaction as the Vegetine. It purlies the blood, clanses all of the organs, and possesses a controlling power over the nervous system.

The remarkable cures effected by Vegetine have induced many physicians and apothecaries whom we know, to prescribe and used in their own families.

In fact vegetine is the best remedy yet discovered for the above diseases, and is the only reliable blood purifier yet placed before the public.

While performing my duties as a police officer in this city, it has been my lot to fail in with a great deat of sickness. I unheritatingly recommend Vegetine, and I never knew of a case where it did not prove all that was claimed for it. Partirularly in cases of a deblifated or impoverished state of the blood its effects are really wonderful: and for all complaints arising from an impure state of the blood it appears to work like a charm, and I do not believe there are any circumstances under which Vegetine can be used with ingrious results, and it will always afford me pleasure to give any further

CANNOT BE EXCELLED. CHARLESTOWN, MASS.

Bear Sir: this is to certif; that I have used your "Blood Treparation" in my family for several years, and think that, for Scrofula or Cancerous Humors, or Rheumatic affections, it cannot be excelled; an as a blood purifier and spring medicine is the best thing I have ever us a and I have used almost everything I can cheerfully recommend it to any one in need of such a medicine. INARALEIGH UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA, CHAPEL HILL, Sept. 25, 1877. To the Trustees, Alumni and friends of the University of North Carolina: University of North Carolina:

The increasing prosperity of the University has created a need for a medium through which its objects should be made known. To this end the two Literary Societies of the University have determined to re-establish the "University have determined to re-establish the "University Magazine," once an ornament to the University and State.

It is proposed in publishing facts connected with the University to make the Magazine the organ through which the historical incidents of the State may be made known and perpetuated. At present there is in the State no periodical of this kind and the need for one is patent to all.

The contributors of the Magazine will be some of the most prominent and talented gentlemen and ladies of the State. The Societies have elected three editors each, and as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers are obtained the Magazine will be $2.50, IN ADVANCE, per year.

Trustees, Alumni and friends, the students of your University call upon you to contribute this small amount to the support of an enterprise, the ends of which are so beneficial.

Those who desire to aid us will please inform us immediately by letter or postal.
